CNIB Canvass Nets $119.61

The regular meeting of the Lac la Biche branch of the WI was held in the Dr. Swift School, Oct. 18, with 19 present.

The meeting began with a question and answer period devoted to WI and ACWW.

After routine business was attended to the president announced that the recent baking sale had produced $23.30, the raffle, $55.56 and the tag day for the CNIB, $119.61.

The library convenor announced that over 400 new books have been recently added to the library.

A Christmas party will be held for WI members and their children, from 10 years and under, on Dec. 20 at the school from 7 to 9 p.m.

The scholarship for grade 9 will be presented at the Lions Club Amateur Night, Nov. 25.

Mrs. Marshall Hamar read a paper on UNESCO and explained the UNESCO gift coupon plan. It was decided to send $5.00 from this branch. A further $5.00 was donated to the AWI fund.

Due to the fact that the $1.00 membership fee, previously paid, was inadequate for necessary expenses, it was passed unanimously to increase the fee to $2.00 per member. Fees must be paid at or before the Dec. 7 meeting which will be held in the school.

The November meeting will be held on Nov. 15 at the home of Mrs. Martin.

Booming Trade For York Hotel Cafe

It is a rare pleasure to find a gourmet's paradise in an out-of-the-way part of the country, but at Lac la Biche one can now eat any well-known cuisine.

Since Steve Zaporozny and Mike Kereluk took over the cafe at the beginning of October, trade has increased 60%. Mike Kereluk, who is an experienced chef, is certainly making the the York Hotel Cafe a regular meeting place for many residents of Lac la Biche and for those in the neighboring countryside.

The cafe is now open on Sundays from 8 a.m. to 9 p.m. with special Sunday dinners, and arrangements have been made to cater for banquets and weddings. But Mike Kereluk is not prepared to rest on his laurels, and he already has other plans to increase the menu and provide even more up-to-date equipment.

NEW STYLING, POWER FOR 1956 DODGE CUSTOM ROYAL

THE INTRODUCTION of a 4-door hardtop highlights the styling changes of the 1956 Dodge Custom Royal line. From re-designed grille and hood ornaments, the slash chrome treatment flows back and down to the rear fender before sweeping up to the top of the new upswept fender line. Powered by a more powerful Super Red Ram engine, the new Custom Royals have the push-button "PowerFlite" automatic transmission as standard equipment.

Imperial Motors Displays Many New Features In New 1956 Dodge Cars

NEWBROOK—According to Imperial Motors, the new 1956 Dodge car is outstanding with new styling and new driving features.

The 1956 Dodge Custom Royal now on display to the public, presents a dramatically different appearance. Perhaps the most striking styling feature is the new Flight Line rear fender treatment, according to Howard J. Rosebrugh, General Sales Manager of Dodge DeSoto division. This design gives an impression of extra length and leanness by carrying the rear fenders back and upward in a bold, sweeping line. Other new styling features are forward-reaching headlight bezels, new side chrome mouldings, and a newly styled grille.

New interior styling of the Dodge Custom Royal compliments exterior colours. Exclusive Jacquard-weave fabrics and vinyl bolsters are used on seats and seat backs. A new two-toned instrument panel lends additional emphasis to colour co-ordination.

New higher horse-power and torque ratings have been achieved by increasing engine displacement to 303 cubic inches, and compression ratio to 8.0 to 1. Horse-power on the Dodge Custom Royal is now increased with a considerable increase in acceleration from a standing start and quick, safe passing at cruising speeds.

"Another engineering change in the 1956 Custom Royal," says Mr. Rosebrugh, "is the revolutionary push-button control for the fully automatic PowerFlite transmission. This engineering first will enable the Dodge Custom Royal owner to enjoy push-button driving with complete freedom from shifting."

Push-button controls are mounted on the instrument panel within easy reach of the driver's left hand. To put the car in motion, the turning the ignition key, then depresses the "Drive" button and controls his speed with the accelerator pedal. Only three pounds of pressure is needed for the push buttons, much less than the pressure used in depressing a radio button.

There are four PowerFlite push buttons, arranged in a diamond-shaped pattern so the driver can select the desired button without taking his eyes from the road. Buttons are marked "N" for neutral; "D" for drive; "R" for reverse and "L" for low. For extra safety, the engine will not start unless the Neutral button is depressed. Also, a hydraulic interlock prevents accidental selection of Reverse when the car is moving forward at speeds over 10 m.p.h. Power-Flite, with the unique convenience of push-button control, is provided as standard equipment on the Dodge Custom Royal.

To provide for higher-voltage ignition needs of the stepped-up Super Red Ram V-8 engine, a completely new 12-volt ignition system has been engineered. A new generator is designed to provide battery charging current at lower engine speeds. Even when idling and with lights, heater and radio in operation, the battery will be receiving a charge. This means that the battery is maintained at peak efficiency so that maximum current is available for starting at all times.

Improved sealed-beam headlights are another new feature of the 1956 Dodge Custom Royal. These new lights increase forward visibility by 80 feet with the lower beam and provide essentially the same light as before with the upper beam. In addition, they are designed to reduce glare-back caused by snow, dust, or fog, for better visibility when these conditions are present.

Of special interest from the standpoint of safety is the new Dodge Safe-Lock door latch. Accident figures show that many injuries are caused by passengers being thrown from the car through doors which fly open because momentary distortions of the body at the time of impact cause door latches to become disengaged.

The new Dodge latch has interlocking pieces of heavy-gauge steel which keep the latch and striker plant engaged—somewhat in the manner of a sliding bolt on a household door. This prevents doors from flying open.

All Dodge Custom Royal models may be equipped with optional features such as: power steering, power brakes, power window lifts, power seat adjustment and radios.

A new four-door hardtop leads off the 1956 Dodge Custom Royal line. This model combines hardtop styling with the comfort and convenience of a four-door sedan. Other Dodge Custom Royal body models include the four-door sedan, the two-door Lancer hardtop, and the convertible.

Lac la Biche

The grounds for the skating rink have been levelled off and the skating rink committee would like volunteer help to put up the fence, etc. There should be plenty of skaters around town, who would not mind donating help.

The steeple on the Greek Orthodox Church has been erected and inside work is progressing.

The Anglican Church has received a new coat of white paint.

Fire Destroys Three Granaries

PLAMONDON — A fire of unknown origin, fanned by very high winds, swept from the bush onto Wilfred Dragon's and Frank Dragon's farm and burned three granaries containing 700 bushels of barley.

Mr. Dragon, who saw the fire from his house, tried for several hours to extinguish it, but was hampered in his efforts by large pieces of flaming straw, blown by the wind from the burning straw stack nearby.

The ranger was called but was unable to determine the cause.

Walter Tichonuk Is Awarded Scholarship

HYLO — A grade 9 scholarship was awarded for the 1954-55 term to Walter Tichonuk. The presentation took place at the Hylo HSA meeting, Oct. 13. Other events of the evening was a short program given by the students of Hylo School. A large crowd was in attendance. Residents wish to congratulate Walter and his teacher, Mr. Sachko, on their fine work.

Happy Patients At New Hospital

By JOY HUGH ROBERTS

With sun streaming through the ward windows and canaries singing cheerfully in several of the rooms, the new wing of St. Catharine's hospital made a great impression on me when I visited it last week-end.

There are now 32 patients in the 56 beds available, and already seven babies have been born in the new wing since its opening two weeks ago.

The seven ward aides are bright and attractive, and the tranquil atmosphere provided by the Nursing Sisters would seem to contribute to a happy convalescence. The site, overlooking the beautiful Lac la Biche, with its magnificent sunsets, is certainly well-chosen for those who are suffering in body or mind. The architects, have certainly done a fine job in designing this modern wing, and the unusual entrance hall, with its wall of field stones and the triangular bricked-in flower bed in one corner, suggestive of a French patio, makes an unexpectedly pleasant place to wait.

An early evening meal was being prepared while I was there and the high-ceilinged modern kitchen, with its up-to-date ventilation to avoid any odor of food, looked sparkling and inviting.

With regard to the official opening of the hospital, it is very much regretted that through an oversight four names were omitted from the list of those who helped with the official tea on Oct. 12. They are Mrs. W. Plamondon, Miss Vera Welsh, Mrs. Lena Settles and Mrs. Frank Nashym.

Little Barbara Walker is in Lac la Biche hospital for an operation.

Donatville Pioneer Passes

Donatville lost one of its pioneers in the passing of Mrs. Annie Chamzuk (nee Gudz) on October 6, in the Athabasca municipal hospital. Born in Portage La Prairie in May, 1898, Mrs. Chamzuk came to Calgary in 1913 where she married Mike Chamzuk in the same year. In 1915, they homesteaded a few miles east of Athabasca, but gave it up and located at Donatville in 1918, where they resided continuously until her death.

She is survived by three sons, Steve of Sarrail, Dymetro of Boyle, and Willie of Donatville, also one sister, Mrs. Postoluk of Donatville and one brother, Steve Gudz of Newbrook.

Funeral services were held in the Roman Catholic Church at Donatville and interment took place in the Donatville cemetery. The service was conducted by Father Rekowski of Athabasca.

Mrs. Chamzuk was well known in the surrounding countryside and upwards of 300 attended the funeral to pay their last respects.

School News

A new club has shown its appearance at the Lac La Biche School. It is the Glee Club, organized by an enthusiastic grade 12 student, Olga Rispler, social convener of the students' union of Lac La Biche High School called a meeting on Oct. 13 to elect officers for the club and discuss proposed activities. Olga Rispler, acting chairman, was elected as president by acclamation. Nominees for secretary were Maureen Kelly, Olga Ponich and Anne Wojciechowski. Olga Ponich, another grade 12 student, was elected secretary. Although this is Miss Ponich's first year in the school of Lac La Biche, she has proved that it is possible for an out of town student to be included in our activities.

The main purpose of the club is to take care of the students, who do not participate in outdoor activities during noon and recesses.

Open discussions were held as to the organization of a school orchestra for the club and similar matters. Further discussion will be held at the next meeting for the development of the club as a whole. Let's hope this organization gets fully established and sets an example for students of the lower classes.

Rich Lake

Recent patients at the Lac La Biche Hospital were Mrs. F. Evans and Larry Stevens and Mrs. F. Kumpula in the St. Paul Hospital. Mrs. Deydy from Moose Jaw, Sask., is visiting her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Bennett of Grossland were recent visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kumpula.

Mrs. Jack Sunderman and Lyle spent a few days visiting her son here.

A large crowd attended the dance sponsored by the Rich Lake Students' Union.

The school see-saws, donated by M. Farvolden, have been much enjoyed by grades 1-4. There is no other playground equipment at the school.

HERE'S WHAT the push-button control unit for PowerFlite automatic transmissions looks like. The panel houses buttons for neutral, low, reverse and drive. A touch of a finger is all it takes to go from neutral to any driving range, or from one range to another. Cars can be "rocked" out of mud, snow, or sand by alternately pressing the reverse and low buttons. Two safety features are built into the push-button mechanism. One prevents starting the car in any gear except neutral. The other prevents the transmission from being shifted accidentally into reverse at speeds over 10 miles per hour.

Destroyed Ducks Hunter Fined $25

EDMONTON — John Stewart, Edmonton district game officer for the Alberta game branch, announced Wednesday night that an Edmonton man has been fined $25 for throwing away seven ducks the man shot.

Mr. Stewart did not give the name of the man, who pleaded guilty in police court to wilfully destroying food suitable for human consumption, laid under section 11 of the Game Act.

Mr. Stewart told the court he went to the man's address as a result of information he received and in a garbage barrel at the rear of the house found four mallards and two teal. He added that at the time the ducks were fit for human consumption.

Magistrate A. Simpson said it is a "terrible thing" to shoot birds and then throw them away.

Mr. Stewart said a maximum penalty of $200 is provided and warned hunters that "every time such a case is brought to our attention, we'll do our best to run it down and obtain a conviction."

The Game Act provides that "no person who has taken or killed any bird or animal suitable for

Mr. Stewart said there is no need to waste game birds. If hunters shot more than they could use, the birds could be turned over to charitable institutions and homes "which would be glad to get them."

cials, with a possession limit of 20 birds of any one species.

The season closes November 30.

To Review Ban On Liquor Advertising

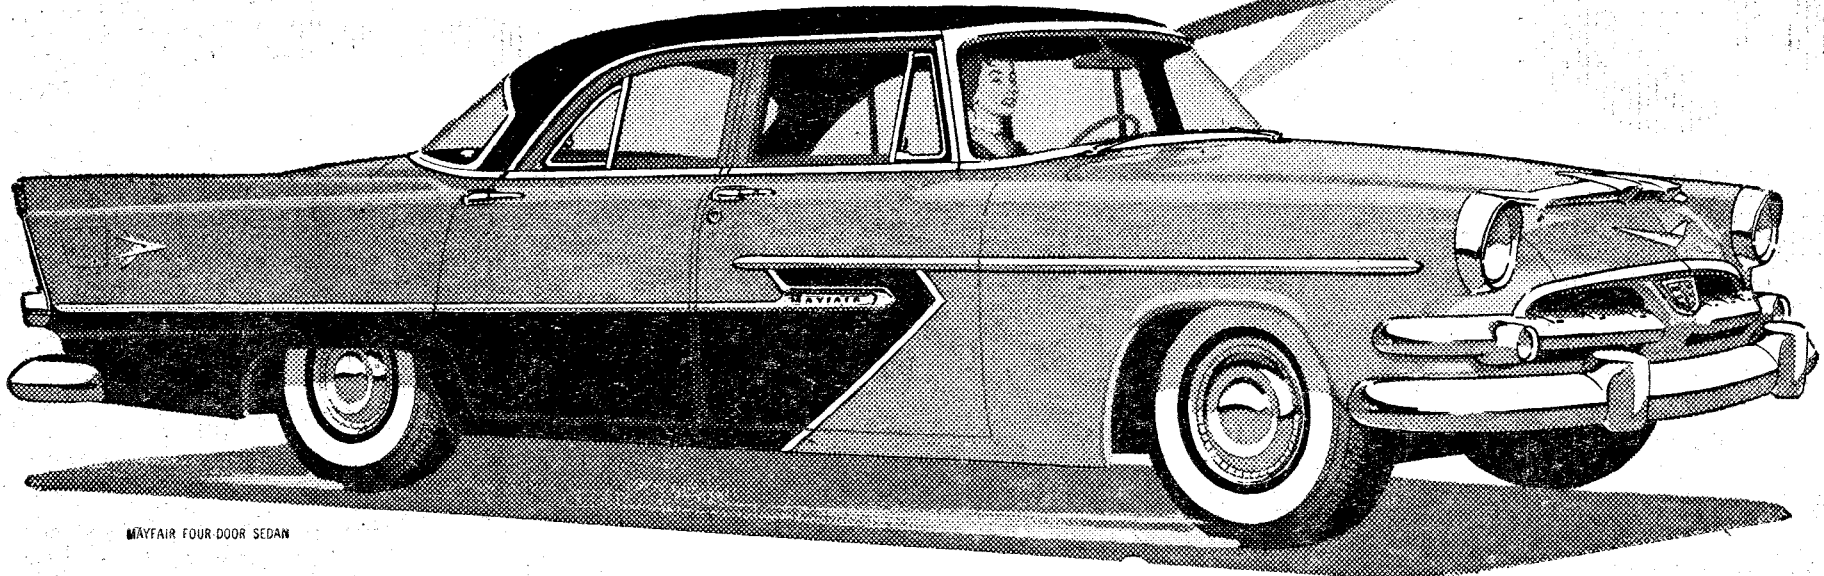

TORONTO — The Ontario Liquor Control Board will start on Oct. 24 to review liquor advertising regulations. At present the Conservative government in Ontario does not allow "product" advertising of alcoholic beverages.

Large magazines like Maclean's circumvent the regulations by trucking their magazines — loaded with liquor advertising — to Montreal and mailing them there. Daily and weekly papers are unable to do this and hence are denied the privilege of running liquor advertising.

Local A.T.A. Holds Successful Convention

The teachers of the Lac La Biche Local A.T.A. held a very successful two-day convention at Dr. Swift School, Oct. 20-21.

The convention was opened by W. W. McMillan, president, who called on Rev. R. Green to give the invocation. This was followed by a short address by Steve Hamar, mayor of Lac La Biche, who extended a hearty welcome to the teachers. Jack Williams, chairman of the Lac La Biche School Division, brought greetings on behalf of the board. Mike Maccagno, MLA, representing the local constituency, was the next speaker. He emphasized the important position teachers hold in the community.

N. Myskiw, superintendent of Lac La Biche school division, also welcomed the teachers and offered some timely suggestion regarding curriculum, administration, etc. Roy Eyres brought greetings and best wishes from Provincial A.T.A. Dr. H. S. Baker, A.T.A. guest speaker, gave an interesting address on "Teaching: a Formula or Faculty?" He pointed out that the teacher cannot teach effectively by resorting only to a teaching formula, but must possess a faculty or power to teach. Dr. Baker is a professor of English in the Faculty of Education, University of Alberta.

Mrs. V. I. Rust, Faculty of Education, University of Alberta, gave a very comprehensible address on "Making Arithmetic Meaningful", emphasizing the fact that pupils will learn arithmetic if it has meaning for them.

The teachers were then divided into two groups, elementary and secondary sections. The elementary section, dealing with Integrated Activities, had Mrs. Rust as consultant. Dr. Baker acted as consultant of the secondary section, which dealt with English in the Junior and Senior high schools.

During the evening of the first day of the convention, the teachers enjoyed the banquet also held in the school.

Following a delicious chicken supper, served by the ladies of the Greek Orthodox Church, friends and guests of the teachers were entertained by stories given by volunteers, Fr. J. E. McGrane, Roy Eyres and N. Myskiw, and by a very interesting and humorous after-dinner speech by Dr. Baker.

Following the banquet, a dance was enjoyed.

On the second day of the convention, Mr. Myskiw, superintendent, gave an enlightening talk on how a teacher could evaluate his work as a teacher.

Dr. Brand of the Athabasca Health Unit explained the work done by the unit. He emphasized that the co-operation of the parent-teacher and pupil is important in making the work of the unit a success.

W. E. Frame, chief superintendent of schools, spoke on guidance, giving the history of guidance, and the important role it plays in education.

The afternoon was devoted to A.T.A. business during which time Roy Eyres, executive assistant of the provincial A.T.A. and N. J. Andruski, district representative, gave highlights on salaries and other work of the A.T.A. Central Executive.
